Memo No: Ch- 207/SS-461/Vol-II
Dated: - 28/12/2008

Subject: - Settlement of the Pending Electricity Bills of Rural Domestic and Agriculture categories of consumer in Rural Areas.

Please refer to Sales Circulars No. U-21/2005 and its amendments, vide which detailed instructions for settlement of pending electricity bills of rural domestic and agriculture category of consumers were issued.

For giving one last chance to the consumers, who have dropped out after opting the scheme it has been decided to give last opportunity to the consumers for availing the benefits of the scheme as per the following:-

2. The consumers who have opted for the scheme by depositing at least one current bill during the period 16.06.2005 to 31.01.2008, as per circulars issued from Head Office from time to time, are given one last opportunity to take full benefit of the scheme by depositing the outstanding amount in lumpsum.

3. Such consumers are required to deposit their current outstanding energy bills by 31st January, 2009.

4. The current energy charges bill from such consumers may also be accepted and PDCO proceedings may be stopped for such consumers.

5. No fresh consumers, Agriculture or Domestic, can opt now and the above is for benefit of such consumers who had opted for the scheme earlier as per policy / instructions of the Nigam.

6. The consumers who will not avail the benefits of the above scheme up to 31.01.2009 shall be disconnected as per the provisions of SC No. U-27/2007.

7. The defaulting consumers who never opted for the scheme should be proceeded against by issue of PDCO and other recovery measures like pre-litigative notices/Revenue Recovery Notices etc. as per instructions issued earlier. Wide publicity of the above scheme should be given. Concerned Superintending Engineer ‘Operations’ shall ensure the publicity of above through Cable TV and other means of local media, press release etc.

The above instructions should be brought to the notice of all concerned for careful and meticulous compliance.
